Large road project in Sicily awarded to Cmc

The joint venture formed by Cmc (leader), Consorzio Cooperative Costruzioni (share assigned to cooperative Iter) and Tecnis, has been awarded the works for the realisation of the second maxi section of SS 640 motorway of Porto Empedocle, from km 44 to the junction of Imera, for an overall amount of 542 million Euro.

The works consist of the motorway upgrading for a total length of 28,2 kilometers. The general contractor will execute the works in 5 years.

Cmc, together with Iter, is currently executing the first maxi section of the SS 640 motorway for a total length of 31 kilometers.

After the completion of the two maxi sections, the SS640 motorway will be a two-way motorway, with each carriageway comprising two lanes divided by median strip for a total width of 22 meters.
