

On Sunday 20th January Cmc will deliver scholarships to the children of its members and employees.

On Sunday morning at Cmc Head Office in Ravenna, via Trieste 76, the traditional ceremony of the delivery of social scholarships to the children of members and employees of the Cooperative will occur.

Cmc has been preserving this event for many years. This one will involve 56 students both from upper secondary school and the university.

CMC financial commitment is about 18,000 euro and the scholarships will be delivered by Mr. Massimo Matteucci, President of Cmc di Ravenna.

Mr. Emanuele Bassetti, Professor of Sociology of Communication - University of Bologna, will attend the ceremony as event guest. Before the delivery of the scholarships, Mr. Bassetti will give a short lecture on "From Social Networks to recruitment sites: practical guidance on how to find your first job through the Internet".

The speech will simply and directly analyze the most used online contexts to approach the job market.
