NEW ADVISORY BOARD FOR CMC: THE TEAM OF STUDIO LA CROCE FROM BOLOGNA WILL SUPPORT THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The CMC Board of Directors is completing an important operation of reorganization, with the goal of appointing an advisory board led by Pier Luigi Ungania, senior partner of the Studio La Croce.

Augusto Machirelli and Mattia Berti will also be part of the team of professionals as well as Dr. Romano Paoletti, manager of proven competence and experience, who will take on the position of CEO.

The working group will have the task of supporting the Cooperative in all the activities of ordinary management, in relations with the procedural bodies, with the financial institutions and stakeholders.

"The started restructuring activity will continue, carrying on the efficiency with new standards of business organization, management control and planning, strengthening the financial and the industrial aspects. We are committed to achieve the expected purposes of the composition with creditors plan", declares the Chairman Alfredo Fioretti.

The operation was launched in agreement with the outgoing CEO, Davide Mereghetti, called to new professional challenges. The CMC Board of Directors has thanked Mereghetti for the contribution given during his mandate.

For his part, Mereghetti has replied thanking the Chairman, the Board of Directors and the shareholders for the trust they have placed on him and for the work done.
